USDAA , as an academic accreditation council, evaluates online universities and other higher education degrees, diplomas or certificates issued from outside of the UAE. USDAA 's credit equivalency services facilitates in transferring your credits from any internationally or regionally accredited online university. Credits earned at any educational level are easily transferrable at both, lower and upper division, depending on what level the original course was taught at. If you have studied at any other globally recognized online college or university, you can now benefit from our Credit Equivalency services and have your credits assessed to meet international standards. It not only provides you with a prerequisite for your next academic endeavor but also open new doors of employment opportunities for you in the Middle East region.
